NAME:____________________________________________

Instructions: Please complete this homework on your own. No late homework’s will be accepted.

Answer the following questions.

1. Describe what kind of databases you have worked with and how you have used them. Be specific about the type of applications used and how you interacted with the data.

2. Please describe what would be your ideal IT role after graduation and how would you expect to use RDBMS.

3. What programming languages and frameworks have you worked with before taking this course?

4. If you earn an A in the class, are you interested in internship opportunities?