11 Notes

- Deadline to drop a course with a DR grade: November 3, 2014.
- No late homeworks will be accepted, and no make-up for the midterm and final examinations will be given.
- Both the midterm and final examinations will be taken on campus. Those who are unable to attend may schedule an off-campus proctored exam with Proctor. Please notify the professor at least three weeks ahead of time so that he may arrange accommodations.
- Each student should complete his/her homework and project assignments independently.
- All students should turn in the assignments at the beginning of the on-campus class on the due date.
- Online students should watch all the lecture videos.
• Academic misconduct will not be tolerated by the University, nor will it be tolerated in the classroom.

• On November 28, 2001, Student Government Council voted to endorse a Code of Academic Integrity:

"Florida International University is a community dedicated to generating and imparting knowledge through excellent teaching and research, the rigorous and respectful exchange of ideas, and community service. All students should respect the right of others to have an equitable opportunity to learn and honestly to demonstrate the quality of their learning. Therefore, all students are expected to adhere to a standard of academic conduct, which demonstrates respect for themselves, their fellow students, and the educational mission of the University. All students are deemed by the University to understand that if they are found responsible for academic misconduct, they will be subject to the Academic Misconduct procedures and sanctions, as outlined in the Student Handbook."
